

Health Career Camp

West Central Indiana Area Health Education Center

July 20—July 24, 2009
9:00 am—3:00 pm

- Learn to examine
 - > Listen to heart & lungs
 - > Check out eyes & ears
- CPR training and certification
- Hands on experience with a human simulator
- Presentations by respected health care professionals
- Tour area hospital
- Health career information
- Interactive activities
- Lunch provided daily

WorkOne has partnered with Indiana State University and West Central Indiana AHEC, to provide youth with the opportunity to learn about health careers and explore the types of training they will need to work in the healthcare field. Camp will occur at the Landsbaum Center for Health Education, 1433 N 6 1/2 St, Terre Haute, IN 47807

Camp participants must meet income eligibility guidelines and be 16-21 years of age. Stipends of up to $150.00 can be earned for camp participation.

"Earn While You Learn!"

Up to $150.00

APPLY ONLINE: <https://secure.goivytech.net/forms/syhcc.html>, or by contacting the WorkOne Youth Coordinator: Joseph Williams, 812-234-6602 x 316, j.williams@workonewest.com. Eligible participants will be notified and camp packets will be provided. Applications will be taken until July 1, 2009.

Partners for Youth

